

Ike Gives Kennedy Full Report on Problems

Meeting
Lasts 45
Minutes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today gave John F. Kennedy a full report on world problems affecting U.S. security which Kennedy faces when he becomes president Friday.

The historic second meeting between the outgoing president and the incoming chief executive lasted more than two hours. It covered the crisis in Laos, the Cuban situation, the gold problem and others confronting this country.

FEELING "FINE -very good" on the eve of his inauguration, Kennedy said he had a "very cordial" discussion with Eisenhower.

After the two men conferred alone, they were joined by six cabinet aides.

"We had an opportunity to talk with the President and his responsible officers on some of the major problems abroad facing the United States today so we can more easily assume our responsibilities Friday," Kennedy said.

AFTER LEAVING the White House, Kennedy conferred for a half hour with Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on military matters. Lemnitzer told reporters, "we discussed procedural matters relating to his taking over Friday the duties of commander in chief of the U. S. armed forces." He said they did not discuss organization of the Pentagon.

During the White House discussion, Eisenhower, the oldest man to ever serve as president, offered to assist Kennedy, the youngest elected chief executive, when he takes office. Kennedy thanked him for his aid.

THE TWO LEADERS had what was described as "a full discussion of the current world situation."

The White House said Eisenhower and Kennedy talked alone for 45 minutes before adjourning to the cabinet room for a 75-minute discussion with their cabinet advisers.

POLICE OFFICER, SUSPECT BEING CHECKED, KILLED LAST NIGHT

John Buntun, a Banning robbery suspect, is on the front seat of his car, dead from a bullet hole in the right temple. Two guns were found in the suspect's car, and both had been fired. A revolver at his right had three empty shells in with blood on it under the body, had one bullet expended. Investigators believe that Eldridge was shot with the revolver and that the suspect was fatally wounded with the automatic as the officer tried to wrench the gun from the suspect's hand. (Desert Sun and P. S. Newsphotos)

Gale Eldridge First To Die in Line of Duty

Palm Springs today is mourning the death of its first police officer killed in the line of duty. Gale Eldridge, 32, was slain as he was checking the car of an attempted robbery suspect on Section 14. He was dead on arrival at Desert Hospital, after being rushed there immediately following the shooting.

The suspect, John Earl Buntun, a 24-year-old Banning resident, was dead in the front seat of his car, a bullet hole in his right temple, made from his own gun.

THE POLICE officer's gun, found at his feet, had not been fired. Mystery enveloped the double death until early this morning when local detectives pieced together the evidence which led to the deaths of the first Palm Springs police officer killed in the line of duty, and his slayer.

THIS IS THE story of the events which led to the death of the father of three children:

Shortly after 7 p.m. last night, Buntun walked into a apartment in the Patio Motor Lodge in Banning, and holding two guns in his hands, ordered the three female occupants to put up their hands.

THE WOMEN, Earline Mae Burleson, 35; Willie Mae Henderson, 41; and Earnestine Gates, 37, after drawing the suspect's attention to another room, fled the apartment and notified police from another nearby hotel.

An all points bulletin was broadcast and teletyped by Banning police to Palm Springs at 7:45 p.m.

In the meantime, Buntun sped to Palm Springs, and while traveling on Palm Canyon Drive was stopped by officer Quincy Welch on a routine traffic stop for traveling a little too fast and driving over the center line.

OFFICER WELCH checked his identification, took his license number and allowed him to proceed "to a party on the reservation." Within minutes after the stop was made, Palm Springs broadcast the APB to all its units, and Welch called in to report that he had made the stop, and that the suspect was "probably on the reservation."

HE WAS JOINED by Eldridge at the corner of Tahquitz and Indian Avenue, and the two drove into the reservation to attempt to find the car.

Welch took Beech Street, and

GALE ELDRIDGE

Eldridge drove on Elm Street. Almost immediately after the two police officers had parted, Eldridge radioed that he had "located the car in front of 675 Ash Street and was investigating."

Welch started for that location and as he turned the corner about a block away he said that he heard two shots fired.

ARRIVING ON the scene he found Eldridge face down on the front seat of his car, apparently attempting to reach his radio, a bullet hole in his abdomen.

In the front seat of the other car was Buntun, face up, a bullet hole in his right temple.

Eldridge is survived by his widow, Emelina, and three children, Gail 12; Donna, 11; and Bobby, 5. He has been on the Palm Springs police force since March 8, 1959, and was regarded as one of the department's finest men.

THE BODY WILL be sent to Detroit, Mich., for interment, but memorial services will be held in Palm Springs, possibly Friday.

The Palm Springs Police Association, because of numerous calls today, have set up a Gale Eldridge Fund at the Bank of America for the aid of the widow and children.

Railway Express Hearings End This Morning

INDIO — Public hearings on the proposed consolidation of Railway Express Agency service in the upper Coachella valley through the Indio office closed at 10:34 a.m. today.

The presentations by REA, supporters, and the United Parcel Service, which sought limitations on originating - delivery service within a service area were concluded Wednesday afternoon.

THE HEARINGS were continued through this morning, pursuant to published notice, to permit Joseph Henson of Palm Desert to conclude personally voiced objections begun Tuesday morning. Henson did not appear during the one hour of formal session today.

The Palm Springs City Council, Hotel and Apartment Association, the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, country clubs and businesses between Palm Springs and Indio supported the application.

CUBA 'CAPTURES' SIX U.S. CITIZENS

HAVANA (UPI) — Six U. S. citizens accused of being members of a force trained in the United States to seek overthrow of the government of Fidel Castro were captured while trying to land by boat in Cuba, the government press said today.

The six men, all said to be former Army or Air Force men, were accused of trying to link up with "alleged counter-revolutionaries" in Pinar del Rio, Cuba's westernmost province.

THE CUBAN newspapers said the men were part of a group trained by former Cuban Sen. Rolando Masferrer under the "protection of Allen Dulles' Central Intelligence Agency."

The men were identified as Alford Eugene Gibson, 32, Durham, N. C.; Leonard Louis Schmidt, 21, Chicago; George R. Beck, 24, Taunton, Mass.; Tommy L. Baker, 24, Dothan, Ala.; Donald Joe Green, 28, Clover, S. C.; and James R. Beane, 34, Cedar Falls, N. C.

INFORMED SOURCES said the men were believed to have been seized some time ago but that the announcement was delayed to build up the revolutionary regime's "case" against the United States on the eve of President-elect John F. Kennedy's inauguration.

The government claimed the Americans contended they had landed in their boat because they were "lost." But it said the men later identified photographs showing Miami, Fla., "training grounds" for anti-Castro forces.

THE CUBAN cabinet decreed today that employees of the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo who do not live on the base must get special government passes to travel to and from work hereafter.

Persons affected by the order, about 3,200 of the base's 4,000 Cuban employees and probably some American civilians, will be required to get their passes from Guantanamo city authorities within 10 days.

Earlier, anti-Castro student groups had called for a nationwide school strike designed to force the government to halt its second round of firing - squad executions.

Freeway Site Studies Delay Public Hearing

A public meeting on a freeway location for Highway 111 between U.S. Highway 60-70-99 near White-water and State Sign Route 74 originally planned to be held in the City of Palm Springs in February, will be deferred until studies can be completed on an additional location suggested by the City of Palm Springs.

This location now being studied runs through the City of Palm Springs just east of and paralleling the Palm Springs Airport.

EDDIE CANTOR GETS the lowdown on Bowlaide, a new electronic device that allows the unsighted to bowl, from George Swartz, Boston insurance man and a trustee of the Perkins School for the Blind at Watertown, Mass. The new device has had initial success at the school, Swartz reported, and Cantor is joining the campaign to make them available to unsighted persons throughout the country. (Desert Sun Photo)

'OH SAY CAN YOU SEE'

Cantor Aids Plan For Blind Bowlers

By GEORGE LAINE

Eddie Cantor, who has probably raised as much money for charitable pursuits as any man who ever lived, unveiled his new "adopted baby" here this week — a bowling device that allows the blind and near-blind to bowl. Relaxing at his Paseo El Mirador home with Boston philanthropist and insurance executive George Swartz, Cantor lifted the lid on the project.

"THERE ARE NOW two alleys in existence fitted with this new device," he said. "They are both located at the Perkins School for the Blind at Watertown, Mass."

"They are, we hope, only the first of hundreds and eventually thousands of such alleys for the unsighted in this nation. We also hope that they will become available to the unsighted throughout the world."

Swartz, who awakened Cantor's active interest in the device, is a trustee at the charitable, non-profit Perkins School. (He is also the founder of Boston's famous Jimmy Fund, which has raised literally millions for charity; the Massachusetts state vice chairman for the National Foundation and originator of the first $100 a plate dinner for the March of Dimes. Coincidentally, it was Cantor who named the polio crusade the "March of Dimes" for the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.)

BOWLAIDE, THE device which allows the unsighted to bowl, is a cleverly conceived piece of electronic equipment, Swartz explained. It works like this:

SILENT DURING CAMPAIGN

Pat McMahon in Washington, D.C., Tells How Kennedy Saved His Life

SPECIAL TO THE DESERT SUN
WASHINGTON — UPI — Patrick McMahon, 54, is in Washington today for the first time talking freely about how President-elect John F. Kennedy saved his life during World War II.

McMahon kept silent during the election campaign because he was

Television Time Set

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mrs. Pat McMahon yesterday received word by telegram that her husband would appear on the Dave Garroway show at 7:07 a. m., Friday, with the interview taking place at President-elect John Kennedy's house in Washington, D. C.

A mail carrier at Cathedral City, and didn't want to chance violating the Hatch Act which prohibits political activity by government employees.

SINCE THEN THE incident has seemed just another piece of history. But inauguration day is a time for recalling history, and that is what McMahon is here for. Chiefly he has this to say:

"The skipper is a good swimmer—the best—there's no question about that."

The skipper turns out to be Kennedy, who commanded a 78-foot, 35-ton torpedo patrol boat designated PT109.

IN THE INAUGURAL parade Friday, McMahon and eight other members of Kennedy's crew will ride aboard a duplicate of PT109 mounted on a large truck bed and pulled by a heavy tractor. The boat has a 22-foot beam.

McMahon, now a lean, gray-haired and deeply tanned man, was the oldest member of the crew and one of the luckiest on the night of Aug. 1, 1943, when a Japanese destroyer rammed the original PT109, shearing off a starboard section.

AS THE ENGINEER of the crew, he was the only man below deck at the time. He happened to be in the part of the boat which first caught on fire and sank almost immediately.

"How I got out of there only the old boy upstairs will ever know," McMahon told United Press International.

"I must have been thrown out the rear of the part that was sheared off."

"I REMEMBER dimly coming to the surface — it seemed a long time. Bucky Harris (Charles Harris, Waltham, Mass.), who is also here for the inaugural was the nearest to me when I broke the surface and gave me the first help."

"My head had broken through the liner of my helmet and I felt like I was wearing a size 14 derby hat. I was badly burned, especially one arm, and couldn't swim."

The Navy's official report said that McMahon was "helpless because of serious burns."

McMAHON REMEMBERS that Kennedy and a crew member who has since died — Leonard Thom, Youngstown, Ohio, swam out and helped him to the part of the boat that remained afloat.

They stayed on the severed hull section the rest of the night and much of the next day, expecting originally to be picked up by the Japanese. When nothing happened they decided to attempt to reach a small island about four miles away.

Kennedy, clad only in skivvies, tied McMahon to a piece of timber from a wooden gun mount and, with the straps of McMahon's kapok lifejacket in his teeth, towed him to the island.

PUT 'EM AWAY—BUT DON'T FORGET 'EM

One of the worst—and most common—pieces of investment advice you can get is: "Buy a good stock, put it away and forget about it."

Never do that.

Even if a company has paid dividends for many consecutive years, it may not pay one this year... or next. If that happens you may be in for more than one rude awakening. When you blow the dust off that stock you've happily "forgotten", you may find that the price has dwindled alarmingly along with the dividends.

Changing times and competitive new products can have a bad effect on any stock. (Buggy whips are a classic example.) You need a professional opinion on all your holdings periodically. It's very simple to get this advice. Just ask a Hornblower Representative. With the help of our Research Department he'll give you our latest and best opinion on your investments. If a change in holdings seems indicated, he'll suggest it.

On the top of the control box is a raised braille diagram (and a lighted board) of the pin area with a button (or a light) representing each pin.

When a pin is knocked down, its magnets break contact and the corresponding button slips down into the control box (or the light goes out). The remaining buttons (or lights) represent the remaining pins.

"AT THE PERKINS School," Swartz explained, "students who had never bowled began bowling. Students who had bowled improved their scores by as much as 40 points."

"But the important thing is that it gives unsighted persons —both blind and near - blind — another important direct link with the world of the sighted. This helps their confidence."

"Eddie gave us our slogan for promoting this work," Swartz said. Eddie made a dismissing wave of his hand. But Swartz continued.

"It goes like this, 'Oh say can you see — then help someone who can't.' It sums up our feeling," he said.

The first Bowlaid in California is scheduled to be installed in Montebello, probably within the next 30 to 60 days. Eventually there'll be one in Riverside but the need for one in Palm Springs didn't seem too vital to the reporter, who made an observation to that effect that sent Cantor back into his best role — the comic. "Not many blind people in Palm Springs?" he asked. "You haven't checked the driver statistics lately."

Coffman Water Survey Approved

A contract with mechanical engineer R. K. Visser for engineering survey and recommendations on Palm Springs High School and Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School water distribution systems was approved by the district school board during its last meeting.

The contract, at an hourly rate of $25 for an estimated $4,875 plus $350 for necessary demolition work will include engineering for change of water and utility lines for the Palm Springs High School swimming pool. Electrolysis had speeded pipe corrosion, making the repairs there an emergency measure, district administrators reported.

Castro Tribunals Send 16 to Prison

HAVANA — Military tribunals dispensing revolutionary justice in Cabana Prison yesterday announced that 16 more Cuban "terrorists" have been convicted and sentenced to prison terms ranging up to 30 years.

At least 50 persons faced the courts in marathon sessions in the forbidding fortress - prison on Havana Bay on charges of counter revolutionary activities, sabotage, and terrorism. Three were convicted and shot Tuesday. The government demanded the death penalty for three others yesterday. The prosecutor also had demanded the firing squad for four of the "terrorists" whose convictions were announced. But the court sentenced them to 30 years in prison. The others convicted drew terms of from 10 to 20 years.

Private hospitals here were reported to have protested to the International Red Cross against the Castro regime's emplacement of anti-aircraft and other guns on their premises.

FORUM GUEST BEST KNOWN FOR COVERAGE

Although he has covered many newsfronts since he began his career in the thirties, Harrison Salisbury, who speaks on the Community Forum Series at the Jewish Community Center tonight at 8:00 p.m., is best known for his work as correspondent for the New York Times in the Soviet Union. It was for his work in that sphere that he was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1954.

He returned to the Soviet in 1959 for a "new look" at the Soviet and spent several months traveling throughout Russia, Siberia and even Mongolia.

Information he gathered on this trip plus his experiences accompanying Richard Nixon on his tour of the Soviet and Nikita Khrushchev on his tour of the United States will form the basis of Salisbury's address this evening.

Recorded Lecture, In-Person Talk Slated for Friday

A double program will greet members of the Palm Springs Camera Club at 8 p.m., Friday, Jan. 20, when the group gathers for a regular meeting in the club room of the Security First National Bank on Ramon Road.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN Mrs. Chester Madison, has announced a recorded lecture, "Table Top Tricks" by LaVerne Bovair, F.P.S.A., of Detroit, who is a master in the art of deception. Bovair shows and tells how he creates his realistic and imaginative table tops in both black and white and color.

Smith MacMullin, APSA, of Palm Springs will demonstrate a few easy methods of making title slides for travelogs. He emphasizes the necessity for well made titles contributing to the success of travelogs.

CHESTER MADISON reminds members to bring four of their best slides for the February PSA Inter - club competition which will be judged by a Class A club in the East. The Palm Springs club, so long in Class C, has recently been moved to Class B-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dweilley of Tramview will host the coffee hour following the program. Club

Another Milestone in Progress

Today is another milestone in the progress of Palm Springs—the opening of the first city-owned, city-operated parking lot.

It's the first step in a program advocated for many years by the Off-Street Parking Committee, to provide off-street municipal parking in the downtown area. Many sites have been investigated, and many hours of hard work have been applied to the problem.

The Desert Sun has long urged such a program, and has supported the committee in its planning and efforts.

The committee was able to effect another municipal operation, by the Oasis Hotel, but this is privately owned and leased by the city.

Payment for the land and improvements came from a special fund compiled from parking meter receipts and in lieu parking fees charged to local businesses.

We congratulate the committee and City Council on the successful efforts to date, and strongly urge that the program be continued and at an accelerated rate. Palm Springs is growing in residents and visitors, and additional parking facilities will be a major need for some time.

Dreams and Forebodings

NEW YORK — Archbishop Paul Yu-Pin, the towering Rector magnificus of the soon-to-be-started Catholic University of Free China, on Formosa, is in New York with a head full of dreams and a heart heavy with forebodings.

"Catholic University will have five campuses in as many areas on Formosa," the Vatican-educated Chinese prelate said, pouring tea in the living room of the Sino-American Amity Club House on Riverside Drive. "In ten years we will have 12,000 students of all creeds, taught by Jesuits, Dominicans, Priests of the Order of the Divine Word, Sisters of the Sacred Heart, and members of the laity."

"FOR TEN YEARS we sought permission to start this work as a replacement for old Fugene-Catholic University in Peking. Now Pope John XXIII has approved. Now it is considered safe to build such a University on Formosa."

We asked him if this was another way of saying that the Free Chinese had neither hope nor intention to recapture the mainland and liberate its 600,000,000 Communist slaves.

"First we must educate new leaders," he said. "New leaders for a New China. Our time is running out. We must do something now to encourage the people to rise from within."

"MY PREDICTION is that Red China will have atomic weapons in three years. Some of your American experts say two years. The British, being more conservative, say four. I say three. She has all the uranium she needs."

"Your country made a bad mistake when you did nothing to persuade the American-educated young Chinese scientists to remain here several years ago when Red China was demanding that they return. Many thus returned. They will produce the Red Chinese atomic bomb which will align not one but two Communist atomic powers against you, one of them, the Red Chinese, completely without moral principles."

What did he suggest?

"THE DESTRUCTION of Red China," the Archbishop said. "Not by your arms or blood but by every means you can devise to get through to the hundreds of millions of slaves as Lincoln liberated the fewer slaves in this land. This should be the prime crusade of the Free World, of Christianity particularly."

"We cannot let hope die and resistance rust wherever people are enslaved. There is always resistance to encourage. Now we see the few Communists in charge of all the millions of Chinese slaves blaming bad weather for the poor agricultural yield this past year. Our Japanese friends have exposed this as a lie. Their meteorologists tell us that Mainland China had an exceptionally good year, with its weather."

"IT WAS NOT A rebellion of the weather that caused the harvest failure. It was a rebellion of the people, people whose families have been broken apart by the Commune System, people who want personal gain for long and hard work. One day — God always sees to these things, in time — these people will rise. Slaves always rise. But when they rise, what will they say of us who have not lifted a finger to help them?"

"The people of Poland rose up, but when the Free World remained silent they subsided and were slaves again. Look at Hungary. There was no Lincoln in the Free World to act. The Free World chose to tranquilize its conscience. We took care of a few Hungarian refugees."

THE ARCHBISHOP believes that those who proposed the recognition of Red China by UN or the U. S., on the ground that it would better relations with a potential menace, overlook several facts.

"First of all, it would increase the prestige of Red China instead of diminishing it," he told me. "It would lend a stamp of approval to the thousands of Red Chinese agents working all through the world today. Imagine 500 Chinese visiting Havana to celebrate a Cuban Anniversary! I was in Lima not long ago and learned that the authorities have found Red Chinese working with the anti-government guerrillas in the Andes!"

"YOUR COUNTRY has had relations with Russia since 1933. All you've had since that time is trouble. What do you really know about Russia? Where are you barred in Russia? The British recognized Red China immediately, and have not yet been able to send an Ambassador there. The leaders of the Chinese slaves are out to conquer the world, just as are the leaders of the Soviet Union. If one cries 'Peace' and the other 'War,' that doesn't matter. They work together. To think they don't, and there will be trouble between them, is pathetic wishful thinking."

Paul Yu-Pin believes that it would be a disastrous mistake if the U. S. and its Allies forced Free China to give up Quemoy and Matsu. "They are the best fortified islands in the world," he told us. "Free Chinese troops could hold them indefinitely without outside help. They are the eyes of Free China and of your Seventh Fleet. To give them up would be to say to all slaves everywhere who strive for freedom, abandon hope."

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Give a thought
To the word that is printed,
It provides us all
With knowledge unstinted.

We are now in the midst,
among other things, of International Printing Week.

IN CASE THAT doesn't mean a thing to you, pause and consider where we'd be if there were no type.

This man, Herr Gutenberg who thought up the idea of movable type many centuries ago, had something bigger than he realized.

Think of what it would be like if everything was written out as it was before the honorable Herr came along!

POUNDING THIS typewriter is a mechanical process and the typesetters can read what I'm trying to say, almost.

Supposing they had to read my hand-writing—or you did.

Full many a thought of more or less promise, would be relegated to oblivion.

No one could read it.

SO I THINK that International Printing Week is an important one.

Of course, there are innumerable important inventions which changed our way of life — the telegraph, telephone, linotype, internal combustion engine — but it was the printed word which enabled easy communication that prompted these inventions.

And, besides, if there wasn't an easy way of putting ideas into type, I'd probably be growing rutabagas or otherwise tilling the soil instead of sitting at ease, punching typewriter keys.

AND THINKING about International Printing Week reminds me of an important anniversary I overlooked earlier this week.

That was the anniversary of Benjamin Franklin, the nation's first columnist.

Ben Franklin was born 253 years ago on Jan. 17, 1706.

BESIDES being the first columnist — Poor Richard's Almanac — which is still generously quoted, he had many other honors.

He started out as printer, was a scientist, philosopher, writer, publisher, had a brilliant political career.

He ran a key up a kite string and did a lot to further our knowledge of electricity.

BEN FRANKLIN had a varied life. He invented the lightning rod and bifocal glasses. He also had time to invent the Hoax.

His fooling around with electricity may bring him more fame in 1961.

For who knows — somebody may come up with a powerful battery getting its energy from the sun the way he got energy from the clouds.

Then we'll have automobiles propelled by electricity and there'll be no more smog.

Thinking over that idea, maybe I'd better call Mrs. G and tell her to dispose of that medium of oil company stock tucked away in the safe deposit box.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Smokes Gets in Eyes

The morning being bright and crisp and full of good health, have decided to give up smoking again. Correction: I have decided to give up smoking.

This is a worthy ambition—so worthy that I do it over and over. And though I have never given up smoking, I do feel worthier. That is something.

"A CUSTOM loathesome to the eye, harmful to the brain, dangerous to the lungs," wrote James I of England in his "Counterblast to Tobacco."

"And in the black stinking fume thereof, nearest resembling the horrible Stygian smoke of the pit that is bottomless."

With that horrible thought, let's go to press.

NOT ALL OF my resolve was pure. I have been testing "The Cigaret Case With Built-in Will Power."

This amazing gadget (for people without built-in will power) came to me at Christmas. I forgot who sent it. But he is a fiend.

THIS WILL - POWERED cigarette case has a time lock. You set the time lock and the case will not open until that time has passed.

This is not only a wonderful thing for a smoker. It is a wonderful challenge.

WELL, I SET the blasted thing—taking out one cigarette to brood on first. I set it for a half hour. ANYBODY can go a half hour without smoking. Anybody but me.

As a matter of fact, the minute the lock clicked, I got a great desire to smoke. I think these gadgets should be peddled by cigarette manufacturers. They do more to make me want to smoke than thousands of pictures of virile men with tattooed hands.

THE INSTANT the lock clicked, I needed a cigarette.

The spare cigarette had been smoked down to the filter. But fortunately I was able to find a medium size butt in the fireplace

With a little dusting, it turned out quite well. In fact, I think the ashes improved the flavor.

THE CASE PROVED to be quite reliable. It opened again on the half hour.

I had a full cigarette before even thinking of locking it again. No use going after these things too rapidly, I always say.

While I had it, I thought of the joys of giving up smoking. I could refuse cigarettes offered to me saying:

"Thanks, I never use them."

I DETEST PEOPLE who say that. But I would like to do it to someone else.

Or else I could say:

"Thanks, I gave them up 10 years ago."

That makes me mad, too. But it would be a wonderful thing to say. It would show built-in will power. I would have to wait 10 years. But that is nothing.

I TOOK OUT ONE cigarette—just in case. I unlocked the little box and set it for a half hour. I smoked the spare right away so that I would not be bothered with having to use will power against that.

Would you believe it? Only 10 minutes of the half hour passed, but it seemed quite long. I even telephoned the telephone company to see if my watch was running slow.

AT 20 MINUTES past the half hour, I searched the fireplace again. There were no medium size butts. But I did find one that worked pretty well. I had to put a toothpick in it.

On the half hour, the will-powered case opened again. I left it open.

I think I will not go into this too swiftly. Easy does it. Tomorrow, tomorrow — there's a day to begin.

The Cautious Type

WASHINGTON — I am what you might call the cautious type. I wouldn't even travel the road to ruin without stopping to ask directions.

This explains why I have no stomach for artistic warfare. Whenever the forces of culture get to battling amongst themselves, I try to give them a wide berth.

I FIGURE THERE is no sense running the risk that some hot-tempered will attack me with a switchblade palette knife.

There are times, however, when curiosity gets the better of my better judgement. So, girding my loins and throwing caution to the winds which ties the record for the most clichés in one sentence I went down to the Corcoran Art Gallery to see the designs for the proposed Franklin D. Roosevelt memorial.

PROBABLY YOU have heard about the rumble now going on over this project. It is getting to be even more controversial than FDR himself.

The fireworks started when a jury of architects impaneled to pick a design for the memorial recommended an arrangement of towering concrete slabs imprinted with selections from the late president's speeches.

ALMOST BEFORE you could say "Fala," critics were denouncing the jury's choice as looking like "a set of bookends just out of the deep freeze." It has drawn some of the harshest comments since Frank Lloyd Wright compared the Jefferson Memorial to a "public comfort station."

And this, mind you, is only the preliminary round. When you consider that the Memorial Commission, the National Capital Planning Commission, the Fine Arts Commission, the National Parks Service and Congress must also pass judgement on it, you can see what we are in for.

I LOOK FOR nothing less than a protracted gang fight over its esthetic values. And let me tell you that some of these arty types play rough.

The Corcoran Gallery now has on exhibit models and drawings of the favored designs as well as five runners-up. I don't want to take sides, but to me they all

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 15 and have gone with boys for two years. I didn't realize until reading your column that boys like to be seen in public only with girls they respect. It sure hit home to me. Boys would ask to meet me "later." They would take me out to park, but never ask me to go any place where we could be seen. Your warning came too late for me, but it woke me up.

I am trying to improve my reputation. But how can you refuse to park with a boy once you've parked with him? Am I hopeless?

TRYING TO IMPROVE

DEAR TRYING: You are certainly not "hopeless." You've already conquered the first two steps in self-improvement. (1) Recognizing the need for improvement. (2) Determining to improve. Now, flaily refuse to park. If the boy seems surprised, tell him you've changed your way of living. Then, look ahead to a rosier future. Rome wasn't built in a day, and neither is a good reputation.

DEAR ABBY: In a December column you quoted "A. R. K." who said, "more wild birds and game starve to death or are killed by weather or other wild animals than by hunters... an arrow or a bullet is a merciful death."

Following that logic, more people are killed by automobiles than by hunters. If an arrow or a bullet is a merciful death, the hunters should shoot one another. And I hope they do.

O. G. K.

DEAR ABBY: My husband shaves before he goes to work in the morning. But by the time he gets home in the evening his whiskers are a quarter of an inch long. By bedtime they have grown another quarter of an inch and are stiff as needles. How does a wife get affectionate with a porcupine?

FREIDA

DEAR FREIDA: Very, very carefully.

DEAR ABBY: Our problems may sound trivial to you, but it is driving us wild. Our neighbors are nice people, but they have two teen-aged boys who play basketball between their house and ours. They have a net on their garage which is only a stone's throw from our window. My husband is retired and he and I are home all day. As soon as these boys come home from school, all we hear is "thump, thump, thump." When it gets dark, they turn on the yard lights and play at night. They know no season. They shoot for baskets and dribble 12 months of the year.

It may seem like a foolish reason to sell a house, but what else can we do? We hate to report this to their mother.

THE NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: Ask the boys and if they can't find another place for their net, offer to buy them a new one and even to put it up for them. Teen-agers respond quicker to direct, frank comments than to those routed through their parents.

More palm trees are coming into Palm Springs as a result of City Council action this week. Negotiations were started to purchase 78 Washingtonian filifera, 30 to 50 feet tall, from a Redlands concern for $85 each. They will be planted in North End Park. Total cost will be $3,500 to $4,000.

To date local firemen have collected $3,000 of the $4,000 goal to purchase a luno to use at Community Hospital. Chief William Leonosio announced today. He said that purchase of the needed facility is "now assured."

TOUGHER LIQUOR LAW NEED--BROWN

SACRAMENTO IM —Gov. Edmund G. Brown today asked the legislature to make "long overdue" changes in state liquor laws. "Present statutes, unless altered, will require the state to issue approximately 5,000 new licenses in an uncontrolled and haphazard fashion," Brown said in a special message.

HE SAID HE INSTRUCTED Malcolm Harris, state director of alcoholic beverage control, to refuse to issue any new licenses until the legislature has a chance to change the law.

Brown suggested seven law changes:

—Authorize intercounty transfers of licenses "from areas of oversupply to areas of demand."

—Permit a limited number of new licenses each year but, combined with transfers, not to exceed 10 percent increase per county.

—PROHIBIT TRANSFER of new licenses for two years "to prevent speculators from buying them at the state fee of $6,000 and selling them for as much as $35,000."

—No license shall be authorized within 600 feet of another establishment with the same type of license.

—No additional bars or bottle shops shall be licensed unless the applicant can show a substantial public demand.

—Eliminate so-called free licenses now issued to person operating on public property.

—INCREASE BOTTLE store licenses from $3,000 to $6,000 each to conform with the price of regular bar licenses.

"It is important, I believe, that we issue a modest number of new liquor licenses each year, not only to satisfy the demands of an ever-growing population but to thwart the operations of speculators," Brown said.

Wrecking Yard Gains a Stay

Removal of the Biller and Son wrecking yard on Highway 60-70 just off Highway 99-111 east of Indio could still be averted a hearing having been set by the Board of Supervisors this week for Feb. 20 at 10 a.m. on an appeal of the planning commission's recommendation that the permit be revoked.

It does not appear likely however, "Biller is asking for a hearing and we have to grant his request," commented Supervisor George Berkey, "but I believe it is a poor location for a wrecking yard."

Biller based his appeal on possible sale of the business to Thomas B. Stockstill of Beaumont. He said Stockstill has assured him he will make whatever improvements are required by the planning commission provided he can get a permit.

"It is not a suitable location for a wrecking yard under any ownership," declared Berkey.

Planning Director Tyler Sues observed that although the permit revocation was recommended because of failure of Biller to comply with conditions, the commission agrees with Berkey that the location is not a proper one for a wrecking yard.

Tomorrow's Citizen

On Feb. 24, 1950, 7 o'clock in the morning, a black-haired seven pound baby was born. That baby just so happened to be me, Laura Lee Payne.

We traveled mostly when I was a baby, to Washington, Arizona, Utah, Idaho, and many other places.

I've had many cats and dogs for pets.

My hobbies are stamps, animals, music, T.V., movie stars, and records.

I have three brothers and three sisters and very wonderful parents.

Palm Springs has changed since I was born. The hospital where I was born is torn down. In its place is the El Mirador Hotel. I like Palm Springs very much and have enjoyed living in it.

Braincracker

Many solutions came in for last time, but T. T. and his helpers felt these two did the best (and neatest, too!) job of explaining how they worked it: Mary Marinko (14), 3884 Calle San Raphael and Chris Wahlberg (10), 582 Paseo De Anza, P. S.

Now try this one: A crew of a certain train consists of a brakeman, a conductor, an engineer, and a fireman, named Art, John Pete, and Tom. John is older than Art. The brakeman has no relatives on the crew. The engineer and fireman are brothers. John is Pete's nephew. The fireman is not the conductor's uncle, and the conductor is not the engineer's uncle. What position does each man hold, and how are the men related?

POET'S CORNER

NATURE OF TODAY
By Tadzia Orloos (8)
1121 North Sunrise Way,
Palm Springs

Today there is a very strong breeze

That moves the clouds and bends the trees.

A little sand is blowing,
and hardly the sun is showing.

And in another place
the clouds are gray

And you can hear the bluebirds say:

"Winter is coming, we'll have to find food."

But the little ones are not in the mood.

For the little ones are still too small

Like the little colt is still in his stall.

And so they wait until they are strong
When their mother tells them
it won't be long Before you can fly away on a beautiful morning in the month of May.

Always a big event of the winter season the Palm Springs Woman's style show will have two major changes this year. For the first time it will be combined with a luncheon, and for the first time it will be held outside the clubhouse. El Mirador's Silver Palm Room will be the setting for the luncheon style show, which is to be held on Tuesday, January 31, at 12:15 p. m. Mrs. Herbert Burns is chairman and Mrs. Marvin D. Cartwright, co-chairman for the show, which is the Club's biggest annual event and raises money for the scholarship fund. The ultimate in styling will be presented by a group of American, French and Italian designers, beginning with Irene, Georgia Bullock, Dior, Edith Small, Peggy Hunt and many more. They are being brought to the desert by Bullocks Palm Springs and Bullocks Wilshire. El Mirador's lavish Silver Palm Room will have more of a desert atmosphere, with decorations of manzanita boughs decked with cherry blossoms, carrying out the silver and pink decor. Mrs. Chester Matson is chairman in charge of decorations. A three man combo from a famous name band will play the musical background, as professional mannequins model the collection of Sun and Resort clothes. Five dollar table favors will be given each guest at the four course luncheon. Reservations for the affair may be made by calling members of the ticket committee. Mrs. George Mannington, 325-6315; Mrs. Howard Matthews, 324-2416; or Mrs. C. C. Hutchens, 325-6696. Tickets may also be secured at El Mirador's registration desk or at the Escorts Night at the clubhouse, Monday night. The public is invited to attend this benefit affair. Tickets $7.50

AT HOME in Desert Hills Trailer Park are Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Allen, whose marriage took place last December. She is the former Darlene Boller.

Allen-Boller Marriage Is Announced

At home at the Desert Hills Trailer Park, 67-751 Highway 111, Palm Springs, are Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Allen, who were married on December 14 at the Highland Drive home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harney Roth. Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr., of the Palm Springs Community Church, officiated.

The bride, the former Darlene Boller, wore a lace-trimmed wedding gown with short veil held up by a bandeau. She had as her attendant Miss Karen Allen, daughter of the groom. Bradley Allen acted as ring bearer and Debbie Roth as flower girl. Best man was Donald Dean.

The bridegroom is employed at Thrifty Drug Store as assistant manager, and the bride is a former employee of Saddle & Sirolo. Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Allen, brother of the groom, from Colton; and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rodahovich (sister of the bride) of Long Beach.

In winter, set house plants in the bath tub for a refreshing clear water spraying of leaves. Such treatment once or twice a month keeps leaves dust free and shiny.

Exhibitors Sign for Show

Five leading antique shops of the Southland, including Weatherhane, Sunset House, Rare Things, Tavat and Peter Charles, will exhibit at the first annual Palm Springs Decorators and Antique Show and Sale to be held here at the Playhouse January 25-29, Helen Pascal, who is producing the show, announced today.

Thomas Ingersoll will display fine china; Fred Tongue, Wedgwood; Foleys of Montecito, paintings; Christiansen of Long Beach, antique jewelry; Beaugency, fine French antiques; Decorax, custom hardware; and Michael Hall, decorative accessories.

Leading decorators, such as Elrods, Jamie Ballard of Los Angeles, Danielson of Redlands, Lucille Wilson, Waldo Pedersen, Richard Gorham, Devereau Shuttles and Taddy's Studio will participate in the show, and the Edward-Dean Museum of Cherry Valley will also have an entry.

Opening night premiere is being sponsored by the Guild of St. Pauls of the Desert Episcopal Church, which will receive total proceeds of the pre-sale of tickets. Those sold at the door or for the remainder of the show are not included in the arrangement.

Mrs. C. Ronald Ellis, chairman for the premiere, announced today that tickets, at $5 each, are now on sale at Desmonds, at the Palm Springs Riviera, at El Mirador and at the Chamber of Commerce, and reminded friends of the Guild to buy their tickets in advance.

Proceeds from the advance ticket sale will aid the Guild in its youth activities, she said.

The show will include articles of special interest to antique fanciers and exhibits will be available for purchase. Hundreds of authentic items of silver, china, crystal, lamps, paintings, rare and valuable jewelry and furniture fashioned by master craftsmen of the 18th and 19th century will be shown.

Joseph Copp Jr., noted Southland architect, will present a tropical garden.

It's Swap Night at Tennis Club

Members and guests will be arriving at tonight's Swap Party, coming up the Tennis Club steps carrying an assortment of odd-sized packages, bringing white elephants to trade.

The annual fun party, planned and directed by the Club's social director Joan McManus, always draws a crowd of spirited traders, bent on disposing of some of their least desirable Christmas gifts.

There will be dinner and dancing to the music of Tony Rose and his smooth combo.

Give Oscars Tonight at Thunderbird

Tonight is Oscar Award Night at the big Thunderbird Presents party when costumes will be winning awards. Members and guests will be costumed like movie stars, cameramen, directors or other Hollywood celebrities.

Co-chairmen of the costume dinner dance are Helen Kenaston and Georgina Poston. Members of their committee are Joan Bering, Marion Brown, Alice Harris, Margaret Hayes, Billie Kenaston, Jessie Oakes, Trudy Reynolds, Wanda Walker, Bette Jo Sanchez and Kay Waycott.

Lobster, Laine Wary in Meeting

By GEORGE LAINE
Over a 17-year span, I figured that I'd seen just about everything in a newspaper city room that could possibly navigate into one. But there's always something new under the sun — The Desert Sun, that is.

THERE WAS THE time in 1943 when a wrestling promoter brought a genuine rassing bear into the offices of the Huntington Park Signal, the time when an Altadena man brought a Texas cat into the offices of the Pasadena Independent (the Texas cat is non-domestic and the Independent's staff was. The city room cleared quickly) and the time a six-foot mako shark was found swimming in the pool at El Cajon's El Nadadero Club and your reporter was sent to interview it.

There was also the time, here in Palm Springs, when four young men walked into the office carrying — respectively — a California boa constrictor, a sidewinder, a diamondback rattler and a king snake. And the time a Galapagos terrapin was discovered swimming in Jack Benny's swimming pool. And a lion in the Chi Chi. And a kangaroo at Faye Renees.

This week I had a visit from a lobster.

MY PREVIOUS meetings with lobsters had all been conducted at a dinner table with me on the business end of knife and fork and the lobster swimming in nothing more than a butter sauce.

This one was different. Betty Rios, who handles publicity for the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, walked into the office this week bearing a basket.

"Ted Ratcliff and Murray Seifert want you to have this," said Betty, turning the basket upside down on my desk.

Out rolled a reddish brown lobster, large in size and with pincers clacking.

"What does he want," I asked, "besides one or two of my fingers?"

"He wants to be friends," answered Betty. "He's being featured this Friday night in the Riviera's big 'Fish Fry' at the hotel dining room."

THE LOBSTER extended his pincer, still clacking, in my direction.

"You're sure he wants to be friends?" I asked. "He acts a little like Fred Weigel on council meeting days."

"Shake hands with him," Betty urged.

"No thanks," I replied. "Go on."

"Nope." The lobster shoved the pincer at me again and I took it, a little ruefully, I thought, and then let go.

Betty said that Ted and Murray wanted me to keep the lobster and it was at this point I drew the line.

"Take it back, honey," I said.

SALINGER MAKES DEBUT ON PAAR'S TV SHOW

The impromptu concert had net-Paar show. THE CROSBY BOYS—left to right, twins Dennis and Phillip, plus younger brother Lindsay—have been named Parade Marshals for the star-studded, two-hour, two-mile-long Rodeo Parade, which will proceed up Palm Canyon Drive, commencing at 10 a. m., Jan. 28, preceding the 21st Annual Palm Springs Rodeo, which is sponsored by the Palm Springs Mounted Police, at the Polo Grounds Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 28-29. Additionally, the Crosby Boys will be headlining at the Chi Chi Jan. 25 through Feb. 4.

'FILM FESTIVAL' OPENS:

Olivier's 'Henry V' Bard At His Best

Students of Shakespeare disagree on the Bard's greatest work but most of them would agree that "Henry V" is not it. (If memory serves, Dr. Frank Baxter once described it as "wholly un-Shakespearean.")

That would have to mean that neither the students nor the doctor had viewed Laurence Olivier's production of the work, an effort which also features Olivier's very Shakespearean acting.

VIEWED LAST night as the initial offering in the Desert Art Center's six-program "Film Classics" series, the film — now about six or seven years old — qualifies to this reviewer's notion as perhaps the greatest piece of Shakespearean literature committed to film and surely as one of the 10 greatest pictures I've ever seen.

The story has everything. It has international intrigue, an assassination attempt, one of the greatest battle scenes ever photographed, a preachment of ennoblement the likes of which are sheer delight and — praise be and was it really Shakespeare? — a happy ending.

Sandwiched into it is some of the most fetching dialogue the bard ever wrote and one of the most moving soliloquies he ever wrote.

THE SOLILOQUY to which I refer is the one spoken before his badly outnumbered troops as they prepare to meet the French armies in the fields of Agincourt.

Olivier, giving the lines life and death, delivers a halftone talk the likes of which would have brought tears to Knute Rockne in his heyday. (Not "let's win this one for the Gipper" but "let's win this one for our pride in being Englishmen.") The lines really read:

"If we are mark'd to die, we are enough
"To do our country's loss! and if to live
"The fewer men, the greater share of honour
"God's Will! I pray thee, wish not one man more."

Whiskers Demands His Slice

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
HIALEAH, Fla. (UPI) — Pittsburgh Phil and all the other great plungers of turf history must be spinning in their final resting places today because at long last it's dead certain that you can't beat the races.

All of us parlay peons who have been dreaming for years of the big killing, the magnificent payoff, the ride home from the track in a Brinks truck and the admiring glances of our fellow furlong sufferers know now that it's all in vain.

Uncle Sam has moved in behind that seldom-visited cashier's window.

MISTER WHISKERS has been trying to get a piece of the action for some time now. According to Internal Revenue rules, if you earn $600 the lad who pays it off must file information that you received this princely sum — and you pay income taxes on it.

So, the gentlemen in Washington figure, if you win $600 on a wager at the race track, you should pay, too. Tropical Park battled this edict and contended that under Florida law it had to pay off on the ticket regardless of whether the customer gave his name and address. It was upheld by the state attorney general.

Uncle Sam's wallet wringers weren't to be outdone.

THEY GOT ON the State Racing Commission and what is announced as a "compromise agreement" was put into effect Tuesday at Hialeah. Henceforth, if you earn more than $600 on a daily double ticket you will have to give your name and address — the right one — to get paid off.

This goes for all "pool" betting, which means that it includes quinnella wagering at dog races and jai-alai frontons.

"We did it to get Florida tracks off the hook," said racing commission Chairman Robert Morgan who is, significantly, an accountant.

Considering that there are only four horse tracks in Florida against maybe four million or so horse bettors, I think the people got the short end of it again. Paying out on a $600 daily double ticket wouldn't be so bad if you could deduct your losses for the day.

ACTUALLY, though, it isn't too great a hardship. Consider, as example, that there was only one daily double at Hialeah last year which paid more than $600 and that one only beat the rap by $5.30. It came on Feb. 23, 1960, when Shamrock Green and Model Jeep scampered home for a $605.30 payoff.

The time it will hurt is when the double is a real boodle. Say one like the all-time record of $12,724 back in 1954. But even the biggest one of last year would hurt on April 15. That was $5,302 by Uriah and Pan Five at Rillito Park.

Personally, I'm not too concerned about it all. I've never hit a daily double in too many years of endeavor and I don't expect to hit the jackpot at this late date. And even if I do, I'll be happy to give Uncle his share.

Even if there isn't enough left to get even with my other "uncle" down at the corner loan agency.

HUSKIES NEED WIN TO STAY IN RACE

By United Press International
Washington must win a game or two at Stanford this weekend or else join the California Bears on the shelf in the Big Five cage race.

Even though the conference race has not reached the half-way point, the Bears are already out of contention with four straight losses and mostly road games remaining.

Washington's plight is almost as bad. The Huskies are 1-3 as they move into Stanford's tiny pavilion. The Cards are 1-0 in the league, but a 5-7 season mark would indicate they are heading for trouble in this year's conference race.

Thus it now appears that UCLA and Southern California only have each other to fear in deciding not only Big Five, but Pacific Coast honors this year. They are idle this week.

Other major cage action this weekend spotlights the Northwest independents. They play musical chairs as Idaho meets Oregon State, Washington State faces Oregon, and Gonzaga tangles with Seattle Friday.

Rudometkin Leads

Big Five Statistics

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — John Rudometkin, one of the powers in Southern California's drive toward a Big Five basketball title, retained his scoring lead in the league's statistical scramble today with an average of 22.5 points per contest.

The Trojan star also was third in rebounds with a .108 mark, fourth in free throws with an .857 average and was hitting at a .529 average from the floor for fifth spot among the field goal elite.

John Hendry of Stanford led the field goal shooters percentage-wise with .615 but the average was figured on eight goals out of 13 attempts. Rudometkin had potted 36 out of 68 and sophomore Ed Cornell of Washington 16 out of 27 for a .593.

Welu Takes Lead In Pin Classic at San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO (UPI) — Tail Billy Welu, the only champion left in the field, was off and running for his second men's title today as the 26th annual All-Star Bowling Tournament entered its second day of finals competition at the National Orange Show Exhibit Hall.

Welu, a native Texan now bowling out of St. Louis who won the All-Star tourney in 1959, captured 12 of his 16 first round games Wednesday and held a 82-37 score in the Peterson point system.

Helen Shablis of Detroit, who finished fourth in her only All-Star appearance, led the women's finalists with a 7-1 mark and 37-41 Peterson ranking.

Schedule Two Games in Cage League Tonight

Smoke Tree Stables, 2-1 in the City Basketball league, and Jay Cee's, 0-3, tangle in the first game of the loop tonight at 7:30 on the high school floor and Joe Lewis Juniors, also 2-1, meet Joe Mazzula Masonry, 1-2, at 8:45 in the second game.

Laury's Steak Ranch, undefeated at 4-0 and Bonnie Electric, in fifth place at 1-3, are idle tonight. The league ends its first round next week.

Henrijan Equals Record at Anita

ARCADIA (UPI) — Darling June captured the featured $10,000 El Monte Purse in the seventh race Wednesday at Santa Anita. In the sixth race Henrijan equaled the track record of 1:08 4-5 for 6 furlongs set Jan. 9, 1959 by Ole Fols.

Darling June raced the 1 1-16 mile course in 1:42 3-5 to beat out second-place Tritoma. The winner paid $5.

Sugar Ray Back in Court Again Today

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sugar Ray Robinson, claiming he didn't renege on a verbal contract to fight Gene Fullmer for the middleweight championship in October, 1956, is back in court today to ward off the blows of a $75,000 suit filed against him by promoter Nicholas Troilo.

TEE TIME

Woman Sinks Ace on 7th at Bermuda Dunes

Mrs. Mortimer S. Cohn of New York fired the twelfth hole-in-one to be scored on the Bermuda Dunes Country Club course this week when she teed off on the seventh, using a No. 5 wood and the ball bounced across the green and into the cup.

Of the dozen aces registered at Bermuda Dunes the first one was by a woman, too.

Ed Vines, golf pro at the club, and Ernie Dunlevie, co-owner, didn't think that $50,000 prize in the upcoming second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic was too safe.

"If the first and latest holes-in-one were scored by women, why can't the top pros and the amateurs who will compete here, do it?" they reasoned.

Bermuda Dunes is one of the five participating courses in the Classic, Feb. 1-3.

SMC Trophy Play

Because one team failed to complete play on schedule, seven Shadow Mountain Golf Club players remained this week in the annual Virginia Field Parker trophy tournament. The quarter-finals will be completed by Jan. 22 and in the following week, the four survivors will meet in match play semi-finals.

Finals are scheduled for Feb. 5. Playing this week were Art Emerson, medalist, Don Heiland, Elly Fredricks, Don Stam, John Harris, W. D. Smith and Almon Johnson.

Ranch Club Tourney

Play in the Women's Championship tournament at the Ranch Club gets under way tomorrow with qualifying rounds slated at medal play, 18 holes.

Match play will start later. The tournament extends to Feb. 6. A guest flight will be an added feature.

Mildred Yates is the defending champion.

At Indian Wells

Thirty women turned out for the weekly tourney of the Indian Wells Country Club Women's Auxiliary, a five club choice over 18 holes. Winners were:

Class A — Irene Adams; second, Julie Harris.
Class B — Barbara Porter; second, Carolyn Swannan; third, Beth Fisher.
Class C — Tom Sawyer; second, Aida La Pierre; third, Katie Juvenan.
Class D — Pat Coffin; second, Mary Johnston; third, Barbara DeBlong.

U. S. Olympic Stars Appear In L. A. Meet

11 Medal Winners Entered in Indoor Event on Saturday

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Invitational indoor track meet Saturday evening has a strong Olympic games representation with 11 medal-winners from the 1960 Rome spectacle entered including Wilma Rudolph who took three gold discs for the United States.

Wilma who took firsts in the 100 and 200 meter dashes and anchored the winning U. S. relay team at Rome, will compete in the 60-yard dash on the board track at the Sports Arena. Opposing her will be her teammate from Tennessee A&I College, Annie Lois Smith, and Irene Robertson of Los Angeles who were both members of the U. S. Olympic team.

OTHER OLYMPIANS entered include: Otis Davis, who set a world record of 44.9 seconds in winning the 40 meters at Rome; Ralph Boston, gold medal winner in the broad jump, and Don Bragg who won the pole vault.

Silver medal winners at Rome entered for the indoor meet include: hurdlers William May and Cliff Cushman; shot-putter Parry O'Brien; and pole vaulter Ron Morris.

C. K. Yang, the one-man track team from Formosa who finished second to America's Rafer Johnson in the decathlon at Rome will compete in the hurdles and the pole-vault.

Dallas Long of the University of Southern California who won a bronze medal in the shot-put in Rome, and Dickie Howard of the University of New Mexico who took third in the 400-meter hurdles, will also be part of the indoor show.

THE MILE RUN has attracted two other members of the U. S. Olympic team who didn't win medals at Rome. They are Jim Beatty from the Santa Clara Youth Village, and Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford University. Beatty ran a 3:38 mile in 1960, the fastest of the year.

The new track at the Sports Arena was imported from Finland and is expected to be fast. It has a 60-yard straightaway and a 60-yard oval making it 11 laps to the mile.

Snider, Hodges Take Pay Cuts

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers today counted veterans Duke Snider and Gil Hodges as the first players signed for the 1961 season.

The two survivors of the Dodgers' dynasty of the 1950s will receive somewhat less than the salaries of $38,000 — $40,000 received in 1960. But their pay still is at or near the top of the Dodger salary scale.

Crosby Clambake Under Way Today

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — The $50,000 Bing Crosby national pro-amateur golf tournament got under way today on three different golf courses — with the weather man the star performer.

The world's greatest golfers, paired with celebrities from the entertainment and sports world, teed off in near-perfect weather conditions — with promises that the sun would be shining "at least through Saturday."

Arnold Palmer, the National Open and Masters champion, big money winner and victor in the San Diego Open last week, is the favorite to cop most of the cash. Especially if the weather stays nice.

Van Brocklin Has Job He Always Hoped For

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — Norm Van Brocklin today had the job he "hoped and hoped for" — head coach of the Minnesota Vikings, newest member of the National Football League.

Van Brocklin, who quarterbacked the Philadelphia Eagles to the league championship, signed a three-year contract in the Vikings office Wednesday.

"I am realizing one of my greatest ambitions in receiving this job," he said.

General Manager Bert Rose of the Vikings said Van Brocklin's salary would not be disclosed. But Viking officials had been talking the neighborhood of $20,000 and $25,000.

"MY LAST SEASON with Philadelphia was definitely my last as a player," Van Brocklin, 34, told United Press International. He moves into NFL coaching ranks after a 12-year career as one of the game's outstanding quarterbacks. He performed 12 seasons in the league, nine with the Los Angeles Rams and the last three with the Eagles.

Van Brocklin began his pro career with the Los Angeles Rams in 1949, after a great career at the University of Oregon.

He retired at the end of the 1957 season, but came back the following year and was traded to Philadelphia.

"Among Norm's greatest qualities as a player," said Rose, "is his demonstrated ability of leadership. We need that leadership as a new team in a tough league."

VIKINGS VICE PRESIDENT Max Winter said, "Van Brocklin has been famous for developing young players. He'll have a good chance to use those talents with us."

The new coach said his first chore will be selecting players from the 36 veterans the other teams are offering the Vikings.

"Then," he said, "will come the job of selecting assistant coaches."

Van Brocklin said he is particularly pleased to have George Shaw (former New York quarterback) in the fold.

Top Pilot Joins 200 In Field

Bill Krause of Long Beach, hailed as one of the west's foremost road racing figures, will be among contestants in the 18th annual Palm Springs road races this weekend at the Airport, Jim Peterson, regional race director for the sponsoring Sports Car Club of America, said Thursday.

The races at the Airport are co-sponsored by the SCCA and the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce.

KRAUSE, winner of the Riverside Grand Prix in October and this year's first southland event at Pomona two weeks ago, will drive again for the Maserati Representatives of Beverly Hills.

He is a definite entry in the popular Formula Jr. race and a probable starter in the main event in the "Birdcage" Maserati.

Krause, 27, will have his own powerful Jag-Corvette ready for the 20-lapper main event if the "Birdcage" fails to go postward.

KRAUSE will buck a strong field which includes former National sports car champion Jack McAfee, formula junior Lotus and Porsche RSK Spyder; Texans Jim Hall and Hap Sharp, Cooper-Monaco and Ferrari Testa Rossa; Eric Hauser, Lionage (formerly Old Yaller I) and Bruce Kessler, Lotus.

The two-day 16-race program will get under way Saturday at 1 p.m. over the 2.2 mile tricky Airport course and at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday.

The event is expected to draw 200 entrants.

Floyd and Ingo Sign Today for 'Rubber Match'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson are scheduled to sign the official contracts today for their March 13 "rubber" title bout at the Miami Beach, Fla., Convention Hall.

The ceremonies will take place in the offices of Feature Sports, Inc., with appropriate press, radio and TV coverage.

Johansson, who arrived in New York from Sweden earlier this week, will leave immediately to begin training in Florida. Patterson has been training at virtually full speed for the last month.

Jockey Anderson Injured in Spill

ARCADIA (UPI) — Jockey Pete Anderson, 29, was badly shaken up Wednesday but not seriously injured in a spectacular spill at Santa Anita race track.

The Southampton, N. Y., rider was aboard Le Beau in the last race when the horse bolted into the fence at the first turn. Anderson strained to get his mount back onto the track, but he was thrown onto the rail and bounced over.

Television Starts Career

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD — Every schoolgirl dreams of becoming a movie star, and for the infinitesimal percentage who make it the road is long and hard—but Diane McBain got there one year out of good old Glendale High School.

The 19-year-old blonde is known to televisioners for her running role in "Surfside 6." Moviegoers have seen her in "The Ice Palace."

NOW, IN HER third movie, she gets top billing and the star treatment at Warner Bros. Studio.

Diane isn't typical of sweet young things who dream of stardom. She never had any such dreams. In fact, Diane didn't even turn out for Glendale High's senior class play.

"I had my sights set on being a model and school teacher," the curvaceous cutie said.

"AND I DID MODEL for a while, but my agent thought I might be able to work in television. I appeared in a few shows and the acting bug really bit me. I knew I could never do anything else, so I quit modeling."

"I also discovered the only way to make the grade in movies is to break through in television. There doesn't seem to be any other way to make picture people notice you."

"MOST OF THE younger stars in pictures today came straight from the TV ranks. And it figures. TV provides a sort of school for performers, and movie producers aren't willing to spend a million dollars or so on a complete unknown. It's too much of a gamble."

Warners doesn't believe it is gambling on Diane. The studio cast her opposite Arthur Kennedy in "Claudelle Inglish," and placed her name at the head of the cast.

An amateur actress, Diane does not take lessons.

"My acting school is right on the set," she smiled. "Every director teaches me as I go along. I also learn from the experienced actors I work with."

ORDINANCE NO. 409
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF
PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, ADD-ING SECTIONS 4014 AND 4015 TO DIVISION 4 OF THE "PALM SPRINGS ORDINANCE CODE" TO PROHIBIT PARKING OF AUTOMOBILES
IN PUBLIC PLACES WITHIN THE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY
COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALM
SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AS FOL-LOWS:

SECTION 1. A new Section 4014 is hereby added to Division 4 of the "Palm Springs Ordinance Code" to read as follows:

4014. SLEEPING IN AUTOMOBILES.
FINDING OF FACT

The City Council does hereby find that a definite problem is posed by persons sleeping in automobiles which are parked along the main thoroughfares within the City. The Police Department has reported innumerable incidents of persons disturbing residential areas and causing considerable annoyance to the residents. The residential neighborhoods disturbed by this activity complain to the police and to the city. In addition, persons who are parked in unauthorized areas become a target for petty body bumps, thus requiring the Police Department to advise the sleeping occupants of the automobile to move along.

SECTION 2. A new Section 4015 is hereby added to Division 4 of the "Palm Springs Ordinance Code" to read as
follows:

4015. SLEEPING IN AUTOMOBILES
PARKED IN PUBLIC PLACES OR APPROVED RIGHTS OF WAY.

It is unlawful for any person to sleep in any automobile parked on any of the sidewalks, streets, alleys, or other public places, including approved private rights of way, within the corporate limits of the City of Palm Springs.

SECTION 3. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after passage.

SECTION 4. PUBLICATION. The City
Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to certify to the passage of this ordinance and to cause the same to be published once in THE DESERT SUN, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of Palm Springs, California.

of Palm Springs, California.

STURLEY HENRY, City Clerk
of Palm Springs, California.

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the and was read in full. Thereafter, on the 11th day of January, 1961, the second reading of said Ordinance was read and was duly passed by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen Kirk and Mayor
Boers.

NOTES: None.

I further certify that the said Ordinance was thereupon signed by F. M.
BOERS, Mayor of Palm Springs, and attested by STURLEY HENRY, City
Clerk of said City.

WITNESS my hand and seal of said
City this 12th day of January, 1961.

STURLEY HENRY, City Clerk
of the City of Palm Springs

I hereby certify that the foregoing
Ordinance and Certificate were published January 19, 1961, in The Desert

The JDA Council consists of more than 200 community leaders residing in 11 Western states, organized to help finance the fight against prejudice, strengthen democratic rights and advance better group understanding. Joint Defense Appeal is the fund raising arm of the American Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the nation's oldest, largest, and most experienced community relations agencies.

The national leadership of the three organizations will participate in the conference program. In addition, an outstanding program involving Hollywood personalities is being arranged. A large delegation of Palm Springs leaders is expected to participate.

Listen to 'Teens'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Teen-agers apparently have a strong voice in the selection of breakfast cereals and dentifrices for their own use or of the entire family.

Teenagers participating in a consumer panel session in San Francisco said so. Three-fourths of the panel members said their carried weight when Mom went to market.

BUTCANE GIVES EXPLANATION:

Who Can You Claim for Tax Exemptions?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Desert Sun as a public service will present a series of articles on taxes once weekly between now and the tax deadline of April 15. The articles are scheduled to appear each Thursday, and will be written by R. R. Buttane, local Certified Public Accountant.)

By R. R. BUTTANE, C.P.A.
Exemptions are computed at $600 each for the taxpayer and his allowable dependents when the optional tax table is not used.

There are three general tests which must be met before a dependent can qualify as an exemption: (1) Dependent must have less than $600 income in the taxable year. (2) Taxpayer must furnish over 50 per cent of the support of the dependent. (3) Dependent must be a relative by blood, marriage or adoption, or a stepchild, stepbrother or sister, stepfather or mother, or son, daughter, father, mother, brother, or sister-in-law to the taxpayer or his spouse.

OTHER PERSONS may be claimed as dependents provided the support test in (2) is met. There is an exception to paragraph (1). A child of a taxpayer who is 18 or under or who is a student, regardless of age, may be claimed as a dependent provided the support test in (2) is met, irrespective of the amount of the child's income.

THE CHILD MUST file a return of his own and tax will be payable on all income over $600.

There is also an exception to paragraph (2). Suppose four brothers each contribute 25 per cent of the support of their mother. No one has the required 50 per cent. However three of the brothers may file a disclaimer on Treasury form 2120 and the fourth brother can then claim the exemption. There is no proration of the $600 exemption.

A CHILD BORN Dec. 31 entitles his taxpayer parents to a full exemption. The death of a spouse does not deprive the surviving spouse of both exemptions in the year of death. Taxpayers who become 65 during 1960 or are blind are entitled to double exemption $1,200. In other words a married couple both 65 in 1960 or prior are entitled to $2,400 exemption.

There are many other ramifications pertaining to allowable exemptions. If you have a question it is suggested that you consult a Certified Public Accountant or Public Accountant.

AAUN CHAPTER TO SALUTE PS TEACHERS

A salute to Palm Springs teachers who aided the UNICEF "Hallowe'en" project here will be the major item of business when the Palm Springs Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations meets at 8 p.m., Monday, in City Council chambers.

Chapter President Mrs. Don Marx said that a film, titled "Workshop for Peace," would be presented at the meeting also. The film details the widely varied functions of the United Nations.

Mrs. Leo Spitz, who attended the Warsaw Convention of the United Nations last year, will speak on her impressions from that meeting, Mrs. Marx added.
